

VOLUNTEER AS A CLASSROOM SPEAKER

Invest It Forward (IIF) is a skills-based volunteer program that connects financial professionals with classrooms participating in the SIFMA Foundation's Stock Market Game™ across the country. Volunteers partner with schools to expose students to new career pathways and deepen their understanding of the financial industry and opportunities. Over 17,000 volunteers have supported SMG classrooms in bringing financial education concepts and career exploration to life.

WHO ARE IIF VOLUNTEERS?

Invest It Forward Volunteers are financial professionals that belong to a SIFMA Member firm and are passionate about expanding access to financial education!

WHAT ARE THE OPPORTUNITIES?

Share financial tools and resources with youth across the country!

- Volunteer as a classroom speaker to share your professional journey and provide core financial education content to students engaging with the Stock Market Game.
- Choose from dozens of opportunities to connect with 4th-12th grade classrooms.
- Visit a classroom onsite at a school or online via video chat.
- Speak to a class for approximately 45-60 minutes.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

Log in or Register at <https://investitforward.sifma.org/volunteers> to access the IIF Volunteer Portal.

1. Explore Opportunities: View a variety of opportunities to volunteer in-person or virtually with classrooms across the country.
2. Get Matched: Claim an opportunity in the portal and we'll connect you directly with the teacher that made the request to confirm the details of the engagement.
3. Browse Our Resources: Choose from a variety of financial education materials to use in your classroom presentation.
4. Start Volunteering: Help students bring learning to real life by sharing your passion and expertise as a financial professional.
